2. Unfinished Business

a. Municipal Code - Addressing (fire/police)

This was a study session for addressing. The discussion points were:

- Follow the International Fire Code relating to house numbers.
- Strike the word house and use residence.
- Use real property.
- City Council would make the decision about an address change.
- Strike the word structure.
- Strike the word representative and replace it with Police Chief, Fire Chief, etc.
- Use a block numbering system.
- Don't use the word generally.
- Have a definition section.
- Streets go east and west.
- Avenues go north and south.
- Address by using parcels and, if more than one or more accessory dwelling units are located on one parcel, use A, B, C and D.
- Use 1/2 if accessed by an alley.
- Alley access is an issue when addressing.

Cassidy Buechle - Curtis will send out a notice of available dates as to when the next study session will be.

3. Adjourn
