2. Unfinished Business

a. Municipal Code - Addressing (fire/police)

- Multifamily housing buildings need to be lettered; doors have numbers coinciding with the level.
- The address is at the main entrance. This will determine the process of numbering.
- Duplexes are lettered A, B, and C instead of numbers.
- Accessory Dwelling Units are to be lettered A, B, and C. It will be up to the property owner to change address if a unit is added out of order.
- Cassidy will print out and send what changes the committee has made to date and then the committee can make notes to discuss at the next meeting.
- The city assigns the addresses.
- The committee needs to look at the signage portion of this code.
- Addresses need to be displayed with 4" numbers with a contrasting background.
- Discussion was had about where to place the numbers, possibly putting the numbers on the curbs. Not everyone has a curb and then the snow will cover them in the wintertime.
- Chief Mills said they should follow the International Fire Code in the placement and design of the house numbering.
- They scheduled another study session.
